Residential Zoned Land Tax (RZLT)

Timeline and process

WHAT IS RZIT?

The RZLT is a new tax aimed at increasing housing supply by activating zoned, serviced residential development lands (including mixed-use lands), Ireland needs an average of 33,000 homes built per year. It is estimated that only one-sixth of residential zoned land is activated for housing during a local authority's six-year Development Plan. While homes and gardens may be identified on the local authorities' maps as being on lands that will be subject to the tax.

Deadline for local lans decisions residential homes and gardens will not be liable for the tax. authorities to publish Submission Deadline for local Final Maps. These will The tax will apply from 2024 at 3% of the market value of the land. The tax is being introduced deadline authorities to inform reflect additions, as part of Housing for All, the Government's housing plan to 2030. landowners of decisions exclusions or zoning Deadline for landowners on requests for exclusion changes arising from to make a submission to submissions, decisions of land(s) from the RZLT. their local authority Landowners have until and appeals. regarding inclusion/ 01 September 2023 to exclusion of their Supplemental appeal these decisions to land(s) from the An Bord Pleanida. decisions Supplemental Map, or to request a change of Deadline for local zoning of land. authorities to publish maps containing any additional lands that will be subject to the RZLT. Submission deadline June 1st 2023 April 1st 2023

gov.ie/rzlt

2023

The Residential Zoned Land Tax becomes operational and

Final Maps

2024

owners of land identifed as being in scope in the Final Map become liable for RZLT.

Supplemental